

This Eastern European ad took us over 60 years to write.

It isn't often that an airline gets the opportunity to boast about six decades of service to one part of the world. So we went for it. Frankly, because we're quite proud. Not many airlines can make that claim.

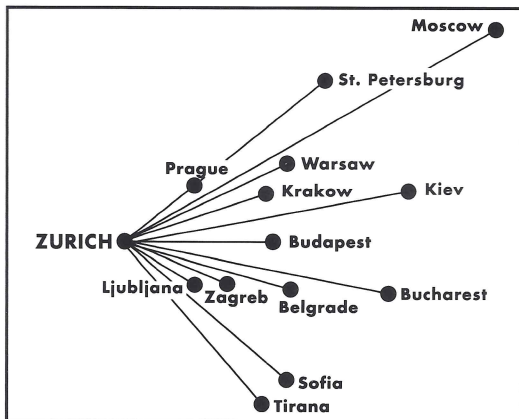

So if you're doing business or visiting friends or relatives in Eastern Europe, there's never been a better time to do it. Or a better airline to do it with. After all, we'll take you to any country in Eastern Europe in a style that only Swissair can offer. With, of course, a stop in Zurich, where we have our own terminal, considered to be one of the best airports in the world.

No matter where you're going to in Eastern Europe, go with the one airline that's been going there for more than 60 years. Swissair. For reservations, call your travel agent or Swissair.
